Audio/Videography and Photography at ISC 2022

By registering to attend ISC 2022, I understand and consent to the organizers audio/video recording and photographing me at the event.

I consent to my image(s) appearing in the ISC photo and video collection on Flickr, Youtube, the ISC High Performance website, social media, and in the conference promotional materials, which might be printed and distributed to potential attendees and exhibitors.

Note: If you do not wish the organizers to audio/video record and photograph you during the event, please do not activate your microphone or camera during any live session.
