ISC Code of Conduct

ISC High Performance is dedicated to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, nationality, ethnicity, religion (or lack thereof), manner of articulation, or technology choices.

We do not tolerate harassment of participants in any form. As a professional event that aims to bring together HPC enthusiasts from various countries to actively share knowledge, ideas and network, we recognize the inherent worth of every person by being respectful to them. All forms of communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of different backgrounds.

All ISC participants are bound by the ISC Code of Conduct, and those found violating the ISC High Performance Code of Conduct may be asked to leave the conference without a refund at the sole discretion of the conference organizers and also banned from future conferences.
